4 Must-Try Delectable Dishes From Boston Restaurants

For the indecisive diners who need a hand in ordering, we've rounded up Boston's top bites.

Contessa's butternut squash carpaccio is a perfect mix of sweet and savory.

Butternut Squash Carpaccio at Contessa

Scanning over Mario Carbone's menu of heavenly Italian dishes, a butternut squash carpaccio amid options like daily imported burrata and meatballs may be overlooked, but that would be a regrettable mistake. One cannot fully appreciate Contessa without ordering the thinly sliced butternut squash topped with arugula, pumpkin seeds, agrodolce and pink peppercorns—each bite melts in your mouth with the perfect marriage of sweet and savory. contessatrattoria.com
