CONTESSA

If you're addicted to @DeuxMoi star sightings (and who isn't?), you probably have this celeb fave from Major Food Group (the New York City company behind glittering Carbone, Parm, and Dirty French) on your radar. Walking in feels like you've snuck into the best, most maximalist bash in town—and then there's that Insta-worthy view, perched high atop the Newbury Boston hotel in a glass jewel box. Lest we overlook the talents of celebrity-chef principals Mario Carbone and Rich Torrisi, though, it's the standout northern Italian cuisine—that Florentine steak!—that keeps us buzzing back over again.
